CIVIL ACTION NO. 3:06cv1014-MEF

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

MOTION FOR COMPULSORY DISCOVERY

The Plaintiff William S. McLaurine, II comes before this Honorable Court with this SECOND MOTION TO EXTEND DEADLINE FOR AMENDMENT. The the Plaintiff has requested that the Defendant, the City of Auburn, Alabama, provide the name and address for servcie of the person identified as the “unnamed dispatcher” in the past. These requests have not been met with production of this information. This individual must be named, so that the individual may be served. The Plaintiff maintians that the Defendant, the City of Auburn, Alabama has this information in its possession.

The Plaintiff has moved that the deadline for AMENDMENT for new defendants be extended until the Defendant, the City of Auburn, Alabama, submits this information to the court, and until that the person may be named and served as a defendant in this case.

In a previous ORDER this court found it appropriate to extend the deadline. The Plaintiff seeks a further extension. In addition to this extension the Plaintiff MOVES that the Defendant City of Auburn, Alabama, be compelled to produce the name and address of service for the "unnamed police dispatcher," who was responsible for dispatching the Police, particularlry Officer Lavarro Bean on or about the early morning hours of November 26, 2004, that led to the arrest of Plaintiff William McLaurine. Such an individual is believed to operating under the supervision of defendant Benjamin Walker, and is know to be male.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the above information is true and correct.
